[illegible] Secretary of the Navy urges [illegible] to wait and act as a mere [illegible] "an assembling to help the party." Such, also, is not at variance with the Britannic statesmen brought, replied to [illegible] "to which party do you refer?" But Lawrence did not see the point, and the talk formally taking the form of his exchange of compliments with the Massachusetts [illegible] answer Sudduth by the question had otherwise to do with which the Congressman sought to oblige the police. It is only a few years since Senator Don Cameron, a Republican and a Republican administration, would not grant this, and at the "Hall."

The many earlier war stories and some [illegible] exchanged, ended in Don [illegible] "I am wondering, to help the party." Sudduth, who is not at [illegible] to the Britannic statesmen brought, replied to [illegible] "To which party do you refer?" But Lawrence did not see the point, and the talk formally taking the form of his exchange of compliments with the Massachusetts [illegible] answer Sudduth by the question had otherwise to do with which the Congressman sought to oblige the police. It is only a few years since Senator Don Cameron, a Republican and a Republican administration, would not grant this, and at the "Hall."

Democratic economists contend that Secretary Gresham's estimate of [illegible] bushels of wheat, 1,000,000 bushels of corn, 1,000,000 bushels of oats, 60,000 bushels of rye, and 60,000 bushels of barley. Total, 1,000,000 bushels. Of all kinds of grain, against 2,000,000 bushels a year ago. For the week ends the December of the Chicago Board of Trade receipts equal [illegible] of grain, to the United States and [illegible] 60,000 bushels of wheat, 1,000,000 bushels of corn, 1,000,000 bushels of oats, 60,000 bushels of rye, and 1,000,000 bushels of barley. These figures are much less than the corresponding week a week ago by 1,000,000 bushels of wheat and 60,000 bushels of corn. The visible supply of grain in the corresponding week a year ago amounted 1,000,000 bushels.

Governor of the weakening sheep that ground from the Statements that were [illegible] Barrington and Mr. Chatterton has obtained and is being taken care of. The case is in the Chicago Board, a wealthy cattle dealer, who represents the White Sheep of Wisconsin in Parliament. Mr. Lloyd was [illegible] here who writes to the to begin [illegible] of 1868. He has visited the farm yesterday. This is the agent "Colonel" who has referred to the case of the Liberty bonds. Mr. Whitehead [illegible] to interest to others. While Mr. Lloyd was here made to the effect of some [illegible] Chatterton has but two Congressmen [illegible] Chatterton, and he was nearly replaced from [illegible] Parliament seats. The interest in Mr. Lloyd, member of Parliament for Dundee, and extends through one of Chatterton's former secretaries. Lloyd's Colonel-ship, a very famous, respected his reputation.

THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT.

The playbill of "Lost in New York," a melodrama which is being produced at Hooley's, is announced for a performance that night. The company holds itself in readiness to begin the performance at any moment after 7 o'clock, and the curtain will be rung up as soon as the audience is ready. Between the acts the members of the company will pass among the audience, and any one who has a dollar to spare will be allowed to contribute it to the fund for the poor. The management has also announced that it will pay the rent of any poor family in the house for the month of January. The idea originated with Mr. Hooley, who is a firm believer in the Christmas spirit.

Mrs. Cleveland has come to see Chora Worthington, together with Senator and Mrs. Carlisle and Miss Endicott, who witnessed the recent performance of Miss Marlitt at Keith's. Mrs. Cleveland and the others of her party dined informally at the Worthington home before the entertainment, and called on Miss Worthington's grandmother, Mrs. Chora Worthington, who is confined to her room by illness. Mrs. Cleveland and the others of her party went to the theater in carriages, and had the parlor next to the stage reserved for them. Mrs. Cleveland was accompanied by Mrs. Worthington, Mrs. Carlisle, Miss Endicott and Mrs. Endicott. Mrs. Cleveland and Miss Endicott left Washington on the 10:30 train, and Mrs. Carlisle and Mrs. Endicott followed on the 11:30 train. Mrs. Cleveland and Miss Endicott returned to Washington on the 2:30 train, and Mrs. Carlisle and Mrs. Endicott on the 3:30 train.

FINGER-MARKS and dust on chairs, etc., cannot be removed by the use of a chamois alone, so if your furniture has a dingy appearance you can easily restore its freshness by washing with Ivory Soap and luke-warm water (under no circumstances should hot water be used); use a soft brush to wash out the carving, etc. Dry with a soft cloth and then rub well with a chamois, and your furniture will "look like new."

A WORD OF WARNING.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory'," they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.

"He Laughs Best Who Laughs Last."

This series "on the quiet" has furnished us an apt illustration of how appearances, or one well seems to worship first the right hand and then the left half of this face.

The above saying is well applied in the issue of wearing apparel. If persons ahead of a well-known, well-trusted dealer, the owner rarely has cause to regret his investment. It is when in a moment of emotion he steps inside the enchanting doors of one of those "over—coming—ever—going—rush—to—and—fudge—cut—smiths—cashpaw," or other time-saving fake-cash-stores that he lays himself liable ere long to laugh out of the other side of his mouth.

Today, with guaranteed goods and guaranteed lasting-money prices, we start in for a great pre-holiday sale of Musical Boxes.

Paramount to all other considerations in a Musical Box is quality, nothing being so unendurable and vexatious as a Musical Box out of tune, or one which renders music imperfectly. This object can be obtained only by selecting goods of a high grade, and from merchants whose names lend a guarantee to the articles. We offer the only Boxes in this market selected in person from the best Swiss makers, and our stock is this year the largest, as well as the choicest, ever shown here, ranging in styles from the 3-Air Toy Box up to the magnificent 36-Air Box with interchangeable cylinders. Every improvement of merit is embodied in our Boxes, while the selection of tunes embraces not only the pleasing airs of the day, but standard melodies, such as Operatic Selections, Dance Music, Popular Songs, together with some of the well-known Home Melodies so beloved at the fireside. This season's importation contains also a line of Musical Novelties, such as Musical Albums, Cigar Stands, Decanters, and Door Rings in great variety.

Our unequaled facilities for purchasing enable us to furnish superior goods at the prices at which inferior articles are offered by others, and where no after responsibility is assumed by the seller.

We are the only house employing skilled Swiss Musical Box workmen, and every Box receives their inspection before delivery; therefore, all purchases made from this house can be relied upon as proving satisfactory.

Illustrated Catalogues mailed free, and safe delivery in shipment guaranteed.

LET US REMARK

What would be an event like a DEAD MAN in a common occurrence with live men.

There is nothing to get excited about in pulling out a few all-wool-worn, Summer weight, broken-sized suits and closing them at half the price they were worth just after the year fee.

Come to the PUTNAM,

Where new, fresh, seasonable goods are selling at

Under Prices.

LISTEN TO OUR CALL.

Men's Heavy Ulster Overcoats, regular Vermont Grey, worth $7.50, for $5.50.

One yard of Men's All-Wool Pants at $2.00, $2.50, $3.00, and $4.00.

These are a few of the many inducements now on sale at our store. We have "events" every day. We always have odd lots at half-price, but don't allow them to accumulate.

Just now we are unloading our stock of Boys' Overcoats.
